Mercedes-Benz

ML 350	Released April 2004	$37,950
ML 500	Released April 2004	$46,400

Positioning

Class

- The M-Class remains focused on family and safety, with interior roominess for seven and exemplary levels of active and passive safety features – while continuing the success story of the “Inspiration” Edition by offering a more valuable, versatile and visually enhanced Special Edition for MY 2005.

Model

- ML350
 - The ML350 continues to inspire the competition, combining the 232 hp 3.7 L V-6 engine while maintaining excellent fuel economy and emissions standards. Mated with the already standard features like ESP, 5-speed Touchshift Transmission, traction control and updated interior trim, the V-6 M-Class provides excellent value expected of a Mercedes Benz.
- ML500
 - The high performance 288 hp, 325 lb-ft torque engine launches the M-Class directly into driving enthusiast category. The sure-footed power, unrelenting handling and stern approach to any open road is what the ML500 embodies. This is combined with a long list of standard equipment (leather, power, heated seats) as well as elegant components, the ML500 adds a high degree of luxury and technology for the discerning customer.
- Special Edition M-Class
 - The MY05 Special Edition M-Class embodies the best-of-the-best of the ML product line, highlighting select features such as the aggressive “Power Dome” hood and unique 17” stylish wheel, while packaging current Optional Equipment such as Sport Seats, Trim Package (ML 350) or Convenience Package (ML 500), Metallic Paint and Accessory Running Boards into a great looking vehicle at an exceptional value.
 - This Special Edition also offers more choices, from exterior colors to interior wood designs, highlighting it’s distinct character and demeanor.
